PHYSICAL CULTURE.

All students who room in the Seminary are required to give at least two hours a week to physical training, and must register for this the same as for other subjects. The required work is in the line of light gymnastics, and is intended to correct posture, improve co-ordination, increase vitality, and afford wholesome recreation. The work is of a normal character, so that the student, upon graduating from the Seminary, may have profitable and interesting classes in his field of work, even without expensive apparatus.

Classes are formed for those who desire heavy gymnastics.

A physical examination is required before joining the gymnasium classes, and students should make an appointment for this with the physical director at the beginning of the year.

THE SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC

Established by Professor Chamberlain and opened 2 Jan., 1902
HENRY AUGUSTINE SMITH, B. A. :: :: :: Director

THE CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

§1. History.—The Chicago Theological Seminary was organized 27 September, 1854, by delegates from Congregational churches in Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Missouri; was incorporated by the state of Illinois 15 February, 1855; and was opened for instruction 6 October, 1858.

§2. Purpose.—The charter of incorporation requires that the Chicago Theological Seminary shall “furnish instruction and the means of education to young men preparing for the gospel ministry, and” that the institution “shall be equally open to all denominations of Christians for this purpose.”

§3. Affiliations.—The Chicago Theological Seminary conducts four affiliated schools. These are the German Institute, the Danish-Norwegian Institute, the Swedish Institute and the School of Church Music. The Seminary also sustains close but unofficial relations to Chicago Commons, the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy and the Congregational Training School for Women.

THE SCHOOL OF CHURCH MUSIC.

§4. Introductory.—Many earnest workers among ministers and musicians have long felt the need of special training in the department of worship music. Ministers should have a practical familiarity not only with hymnology and the theory of liturgics, but also with the best musical expression, vocal and instrumental, embodying the spirit of worship. To this end, theological students should hear the best musical work under the guidance of skilled and reverent interpreters and lecturers who present the musical side of the subject in its legitimate connection with the purposes and spirit of public worship. On the other hand, a considerable class of earnest musicians recognize their need of learning somewhat more of the devotional and religious significance of church music. Both of these ends can best be accomplished by a practical study of worship music from the combined viewpoint of minister and musician.

§5. Two-fold Purpose.—The School of Church Music seeks to accomplish two important and mutually related objects.

(a) It seeks to furnish abundant and thoroughly practical illustration for all seminary studies in church music and in all the offices of public worship, including hymnology, preparation and interpretation of anthems and other religious compositions, and the adaptation of music to all kinds and all parts of church services. The history of church music, as well as its interpretation and practical application for purposes of worship, will also be taught in the School for the use of theological students. Another and no less important end to be gained is the general culture which will be realized through the refining and ennobling influence of the best music given in such atmosphere and environment.

(b) For musicians, especially organists, directors, choir singers and those preparing for evangelistic work and for service as pastors' assistants, instruction is offered in the courses in liturgics, hymnology, literary and vocal expression, to which may be added courses in sociology and in the English bible given by the Seminary faculty in the Institutes and in the Extension Department. Those preparing for earnest work in church music may thus gain the ministers' point of view, while assisting the coming ministers to gain the musician's and artist's point of view. The gain will be more than double to each party in this united work, and the result will be the needed understanding and sympathy between pulpit, choir and pew, which forms the first indispensable requisite for the advancement of the truest ideals in church music.

§6. Requirements for Admission.—Applicants for admission to the regular courses in the School should have a good general education. Those who have had a high school course or its equivalent will find many opportunities for studying general methods of religious work in other departments of the Seminary.

§7. Application for Admission.—Application for enrolment in any course should be made to the director of the School in person or by letter. Where the applicant looks forward to an extended course of study in preparation for the general work of a church musician, a detailed statement should be made of previous study in other lines than music, with the usual credentials as to character and general personal fitness for this work.

§8. Credentials.—Application for admission to a complete course of study should be accompanied by the following credentials: (1) a statement of the applicant's age, occupation and previous education, including certificates of graduation from any other school; (2) a statement of the applicant's religious experience and of the Christian work in which he has been engaged, including a certificate of church membership; and (3) letters of recommendation from persons who are in a position to testify to the moral character and earnestness of the applicant.

§9. Matriculation.—Individual pupils are received by the instructors at any time. Candidates for admission to the full course should present themselves in person to the director in his studio in Carpenter Memorial Hall at the beginning of the year.

Wednesday, 29 September, 1909, is set as Matriculation Day for the next school year.

§10. Tuition.—The charges for tuition are as follows:

Private lessons, Pipe Organ—term of 10 lessons.....	$15.00
Private lessons, Piano, Voice, Violin—term of 10 lessons.....	10.00
Rent of organ—2 hours per week, ten weeks.....	5.00

Persons who are regularly enrolled in the Seminary or the Institutes, or are taking private lessons in the School may take hymnology, liturgics, chapel choirs, elementary singing and conducting without additional charge.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

§11. Seminary Year.—The seminary year begins on the last Wednesday of each September and ends on the thirty-third Thursday next thereafter. It includes one vacation of two weeks covering Christmas and New Year's Day. Exclusive of the vacation, the seminary year falls into three administrative periods of ten weeks each, beginning respectively on the first, eleventh and twenty-third Thursdays of the seminary year.

The next seminary year begins on Wednesday, 29 September, 1909, and ends on Thursday, 12 May, 1910.

§12. Students' Rooms.—Rooms in the seminary dormitories are granted to all resident students who are carrying at least eight hours a week of seminary work. A student occupying a suite of two rooms (§19) is charged $12.50 for the first period and $13.75 each for the second and third periods, or $1.25 a week. Two students occupying a suite of three rooms (§19) are charged $20.00 for the first period and $22.00 each for the second and third periods, or $2.00 a week. This charge covers heat, light, care of room and general expenses. The drawing of rooms takes place on Matriculation Day.

Students who do not occupy seminary rooms are charged an incidental fee of $2.00 for a single period or $5.00 for a seminary year.

Students must pay all fees to the treasurer at the beginning of each period.

§13. General Expenses.—Students make their own arrangements for board. Table board may be had in the neighborhood for $3.00 a week, or upwards. The following table gives the estimated minimum general expenses which a student may incur during the seminary year:

Care of room, double suite, one student, 32 weeks.....	$ 32.00
Table board, 32 weeks @ $3.00.....	96.00
Laundry, 32 weeks @ 50 cents.....	16.00
Books and stationery.....	10.00

$144.00

§14. Worship.—Students and professors meet for prayers in Carpenter Memorial Chapel at noon on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday each week during the seminary year. The members of the board of instruction conduct these services except on such Fridays as may be set apart for students' chapel addresses.

Thursday afternoon from four to five o'clock each week is set apart for conference by students and professors. Eminent men in various walks of life are secured to address these conferences. The first Thursday conference of each month is devoted to a prayer and conference meeting of the professors and students.

In addition, each institute holds a weekly prayer-meeting of its own members.

§15. Student Organizations.—(a) House Committee.—All matters pertaining to conduct and the use of the building by students are in charge of the house committee, consisting of representatives from each of the seminary classes, the institutes and the faculty. This committee holds regular bi-weekly meetings.

(b) Young Men's Christian Association.—For the convenient management of general student interests the Young Men's Christian Association, affiliated with the International Young Men's Christian Association, has been made the one organization which includes the entire student body. Every student who is admitted to the Institutes becomes at the same time a member of this organization without further action on his part.

(c) Volunteer Band.—This organization serves to keep the volunteers in touch with each other, and brings them into relation with the volunteers of the other schools of the city through the Chicago Volunteer Union, which holds monthly meetings during the school year.

§16. Missions.—The missionary spirit has been, from the first, prevalent in the Seminary, and a large number of its graduates have gone out to work in mission fields, both home and foreign. Ninety-seven of its graduates have been or are now at work in foreign lands, sixty-eight of these in distinctly missionary work. Of this number, forty-one are from the Seminary, one from the German Institute, four from the Danish-Norwegian Institute, and twenty-two from the Swedish Institute. Twenty-nine of those who have been trained in the foreign institutes have served as regular pastors in their native lands. About forty of the Seminary's graduates are now in active missionary service, and the students of the Seminary keep in touch with these men by writing each year a personal letter to each one.

A mission study class is carried on during the greater part of the year under the direction of the missionary committee appointed by the students. The course this year includes a study of the biographies of the leading home and foreign missionaries. Mission volunteers are frequently called upon to speak in churches and endeavor societies upon foreign missions. The students, with the co-operation of the professors, contribute about $200 annually, through the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, toward the support of the Rev. Charles N. Ransom, Class of 1889, missionary to the Zulus.

§17. Alden Lectureship on Missions.—The Alden lectureship fund provides each year for supplementary instruction in the history, principles and methods of missions by those in active missionary service in the home or foreign fields. The Rev. Edward A. Steiner, Ph.D., Professor of Applied Christianity in Iowa College, was appointed to lecture on this foundation for the year 1908-1909 on The Immigrant and the Protestant Church.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT.

§18. Location of the Grounds.—The seminary grounds comprise adjacent parts of two city blocks, standing at the geographical center of Chicago and fronting upon Ashland Boulevard. West Madison Street, the main business thoroughfare westward, passes just to the south of the grounds. Numerous urban and interurban lines within immediate reach give easy access to all portions of the city and to the more important suburbs. The chief centers and agencies of social and religious activity are within a few minutes' distance. The location affords the student unrivaled opportunities for intimate acquaintance with the methods and agencies employed to meet the social and religious needs of the most heterogeneous population on the continent.

§19. Fisk Hall.—Fisk Hall was opened for occupation in 1891. On the first floor are five lecture rooms, the president's room, secretary's office, registrar's office and treasurer's office, professors' studies, the bookroom, the reading room containing newspapers and denominational publications, the reception room and the parlor. The second, third and fourth floors contain ninety-seven suites of rooms for students, of which thirty-seven consist each of a study and two bedrooms for two students and sixty consist each of a study and a bedroom for one student, thus providing accommodations for one hundred thirty-four students. On the fifth floor is a gymnasium fully equipped with all the apparatus needed for both light and heavy gymnastics, furnished by twelve physicians of Chicago. The basement contains bathrooms and a bowling-alley for the students.

§20. Keyes Hall.—Keyes Hall, erected in 1865 on a block given by Deacon Willard Keyes of Quincy, Illinois, contains on the first floor three lecture rooms and is the headquarters of the German Institute. The second floor is the home of the president.

§21. Hammond Library.—(a) Seminary Library.—The Hammond Library, the gift of the late Colonel C. G. Hammond of the New England Church, Chicago, contains 28,956 volumes, besides a large assortment of pamphlets and periodical literature. Among the special collections of literature are one on Old Testament and Semitic subjects (his private library bequeathed by the late Professor Samuel Ives Curtiss), one on Egyptology presented by the Rev. E. M. Williams, D. D., one on the rise of Congregationalism given by the Rev. F. W. Gunsaulus, D. D., and one on Africa, by Frederick P. Noble, Ph.D. While the library is primarily for the use of teachers and students, a cordial invitation is extended to ministers and other friends of the Seminary to avail themselves of its advantages, subject to the usual regulations.

As far as the funds allow, current works in the various fields of theological research are added to the library. The following endowment funds for the purchase of books have been provided by friends of the Seminary:

Alumni Library Fund, John Blatchford Memorial Reference Library Fund, Philo Carpenter Alcove Library Fund, C. F. Gates Alcove of Missionary Intelligence, J. T. Hyde Alcove Library Fund, E. S. Jones Alcove Library Fund, S. M. Moore Library Fund, J. W. Norris Library Fund, Patton Binding Fund, Chas. Walker Library Fund, E. M. Williams Library Fund, Wells Library Fund.

(b) Museum of Christian Antiquities.—A beginning has been made of a collection of objects illustrating the history of the church. This includes the Congregational Exhibit from the World's Columbian Exposition, a collection of ancient coins presented by the late Professor Curtiss, various missionary objects of interest and numerous pictures and relics. Additions to this collection are invited.

(c) Libraries of the City.—The principal libraries of the city are within easy access of the students. The Chicago Public Library contains 429,204 books and pamphlets, the Newberry Library 245,402 books and pamphlets, and the John Crerar Library 307,000 books and pamphlets.

§22. Carpenter Memorial Chapel and Hall.—Sheltered on the one side by Hammond Library and on the other by Union Park Church and reaching back from the street so far that the finest and most delicate musical effects are quite undisturbed by any noise from pavements, stands Carpenter Memorial Chapel, one of the most convenient, attractive and artistic rooms in the city, with a seating capacity of three hundred. It is equipped with a fine three-manual Hook and Hastings organ and a Chickering grand piano. On the same floor and back of the chapel is the music studio, with adjoining cloak room, library and office, all heated with steam, lighted by gas and electricity, and equipped with grand piano and extensive library of church music, oratorio and opera scores; also a reading table with all the standard music and art magazines. Students have access also to the large music room in Fisk Hall, where there is a Decker grand piano.

§23. Farrar Memorial Organ.—The Chapel organ is the gift of Mrs. Arthur Farrar, in memory of her husband. It is an instrument of fine tone, well-placed, and serves every purpose of illustrating the place of the organ in church worship. The detailed specification of its size and arrangements is as follows:

OTHER INSTITUTES, ETC.

§24. Congregational Training School for Women.—Suitable provision for the training of women for religious and social work, as pastor's assistants, bible teachers, Sunday-school directors and workers in home and foreign missions, for which an increasing demand is manifest, will be made for the coming year, 1909-1910, through the establishment of a Congregational Training School for Women under its own board of managers. While the School will be financially independent of the Chicago Theological Seminary, a part of the instruction will be given by members of the faculty and the students enrolled in the School will enjoy certain seminary privileges. A dormitory in the vicinity of the seminary grounds will be opened to provide accommodation for the women during their term of study.

All correspondence in reference to the School should be directed to Miss Florence A. Fensham, 45 Warren Avenue.

§25. Foreign Institutes.—The three Foreign Institutes have been established to provide ministerial training to young men of German, Danish, Norwegian and Swedish extraction who desire to minister to congregations of their own people either in this country or in the homelands. These Institutes are conducted jointly by the Seminary and the Congregational Home Missionary Society, three professors and instructors being provided by the former and three being home missionary superintendents of the latter. The instruction is given both in English and in the mother tongue in each Institute.

All details of requirements for admission, courses of study, student aid, expenses, etc., are given in the April number of the REGISTER.

§26. Chicago Commons.—Chicago Commons, 180 Grand Avenue, was founded in 1894 by Professor Taylor in one of the greatest industrial districts and most cosmopolitan tenement-house populations of the city as an adjunct to the department of social economics. This settlement, which now reaches some 3,500 persons a week through its clubs, classes and neighborhood activities, affords students of the Seminary, other theological and academic institutions and lay-training schools, opportunity to participate in its work and observe the special and regular work for all ages and classes, conducted under private and public auspices.

The Tabernacle Congregational Church, which shares the Chicago Commons building with the settlement, furnishes varied opportunity for participation in parish work and personal service.

Through the weekly magazine, The Survey, edited by Professor Edward T. Devine of Columbia University, New York, and Professor Taylor, students may keep in touch with the best methods and progress along all lines of social, civic and co-operative religious work, the best specialists in which regularly contribute to its columns.

§27. Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy.—The Chicago Institute of Social Science was organized in 1903 under the direction of Professor Taylor and was incorporated in 1907 under the name of Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy, for the training of men and women for paid positions and voluntary co-operation in all forms of organized philanthropy and civic work. Through the generous co-operation of professors in several surrounding universities, representatives of many philanthropic institutions and agencies, and practical specialists in kindred lines of social work, courses are offered teachers, students and those employed during the day.

The classes are held at the rooms of the school, Suite 437, No. 174 Adams Street, and at Chicago Commons, 180 Grand Avenue. Special arrangements with the School enable students of the Seminary and its Institutes to share the rare opportunity for special training, observation and practice thus afforded.

All details of admission, courses of study, expenses, etc., may be had by addressing Professor Taylor at the Seminary or at Chicago Commons, 180 Grand Avenue.

§28. Alumni Institute.—During anniversary week the alumni and friends of the Seminary meet in an Alumni Institute for one day, ordinarily the Wednesday preceding Commencement Day. The sessions of the Institute are devoted to addresses, essays, discussions, exegetical studies, class reunions, etc. The officers for the year 1908-1909 are: President, the Rev. John W. Wilson, 1891; Vice-President, the Rev. Frank D. Burhans, 1898; Secretary-Treasurer, the Rev. Otto C. Grauer, 1887; Business Committee, the Rev. Frederick W. Ellis, B. D., 1898, the Rev. Albert C. Moses, 1892, and the Rev. John W. F. Davies, 1902; and Entertainment Committee, the Rev. Reinert A. Jernberg, 1887, and the Rev. William H. Kent, 1902.

Further information about the Alumni Institute may be had by addressing the Secretary, the Rev. Otto C. Grauer, 81 Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

COURSES OF STUDY

CHURCH MUSIC.

GENERAL COURSES.

1. Hymnology and Liturgics, or the Conduct of Public Worship.
In this course all the parts of the service employing music are studied theoretically and practically. Attention is given to voluntaries, hymns, anthems, chants, responses, etc., and to the adaptation of all the varied kinds of worship music to the other parts of the service. Analysis of hymn tunes and easy anthems, with study of the elements of musical expression.
2. Choir Practice. Study of selections to be rendered in the daily chapel service, and conducted as normal work with reference to use in churches.
3. Elementary Singing, Ear Training, and Chorus Conducting.
Giving familiarity with pitch, melody, rhythm, chords and modulations; the reading of simple part songs and hymns; first principles of beating time, phrasing, shading, balance of parts, and other details of a conductor's work.

PRIVATE LESSONS.

Private lessons in the theory of music, organ and piano, with special reference to church playing and choir accompanying, and private lessons in voice culture and song interpretation are arranged for with the students. Arrangements also will be made for those desiring to study violin and other string instruments.

EXTENSION COURSES.

1. Lectures. Several lectures on various phases of church music are given by specialists each year to the students of the Seminary, Institutes and School.
2. Artist Recital Course. Each year the School offers the public an artist recital course of four evenings, for which the best musical talent of the country is secured. During the past year the course included Messrs. Gustaf Holmquist, basso; William E. Zeuch, organist; Leopold Kramer, violinist; Frederick Mason Blanchard, Shakespearian reader, and the Commencement Concert.

Among the artists who have appeared in Carpenter Memorial Chapel during the past few years are: Pianists and Organists, Harrison M. Wild, Clarence Dickinson, George M. Chadwick, Francis Henington, Arthur Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Middle-schulte, William E. Zeuch, Louis Falk, George H. Andrews, Walter Spry, Wm. H. Sherwood; Orchestral Instrumentalists, Bruno Steindel, Cellist, Walfried Singer, Harpist, Leopold De Mare, French Horn, Leon Marx, Violinist, all soloists in the Theodore Thomas Orchestra; Singers, Gustaf Holmquist, Albert Borroff, Louis Gaston Gottschalk, Sue Harrington Furbeck, Genevieve Clark Wilson, Herbert Witherspoon; Choral Organizations, Germania Club Male Chorus, First Church (Oak Park), Solo Quartet, First Church (Chicago), Choral Union, etc.

3. Musical Clinics in Neighborhood Churches. Nowhere is there to be found a better center for studying the varying and puzzling problems in church music in actual process of solution than at the School of Church Music. Next door to the Seminary stands Union Park Congregational Church, which maintains a solo quartet, a supplementary adult chorus and an enthusiastic vested junior choir of eighty girls and boys. Two blocks to the south stand three churches closely grouped, the Fourth Baptist with its adult and junior choirs, the Third Presbyterian with an exceptional solo quartet and boy and girl choirs and the Church of the Epiphany with its famous choir of boys and men, fifty voices, and its historic organ recitals, given every other Monday evening throughout the year gratis. A half mile to the east the First Congregational Church presents from Sunday to Sunday the choral union of fifty adult voices, the vested junior choir of thirty young ladies, the surpliced boy choir of twenty-five voices, the Cecilian choral club of fifty girls, the Sunday-school orchestra and the solo quartet.

The most successful way of studying the organization, discipline, musical culture and social life of chorus choirs is to come close to them while they are actually at work. Thus within close range of the Seminary are being successfully solved every week the questions of vestments, processions and recessions, hymn singing, reverent attitude in choir loft, the training of the child voice, rehearsals and the art of conducting, the organist's power to unify and beautify a service.

4. Special Musical Services. The festivals of the church year are usually celebrated by an extension of the musical portion of the chapel service. These services have been of high spiritual value in the life of the Seminary, as well as suggestive illustrations of the way in which music may serve in deepening the significance of great religious occasions. The following is the program of the Lenten and Easter services rendered on the Wednesdays of March, April and May.

- 10 March.....First Church Cecilian Choir
Christ is Knocking at My Sad Heart, Otis.
At Morning, Noon and Night, Carrie Jacobs Bond.
Jesus, Meek and Gentle, Hanscom.
- 17 March.....First Church Quartet and Soprano Soloist
